THE NORTHFIELD MURDER.

Since our last we have become possesed of some more particulars of this horrible affair. The girl, Lucinda Cronninger, who, we stated in our last, was wounded, is yet alive, and the Physicians say she is out of danger. Her statement is. that about midnight, on the night of the murder, she was awakened by some person coming into the room where she and her mother were sleeping. The per- Dollars. son came up to the bed and struck her on the head, which knocked her down upon the pillow. It seems that this rendered her senseless, and when she became again sensible, her mother was on the floor and the person was in the act of striking her again. The last blow which he struck her mother was in the shoulder, and the axe was so firmly fixed in her body, that the ruffain was compelled to take the axe wear the poll to get it out. When the girl saw the man strike her mother the last time, she uttered a scream and the monster fled. She says that the man was Samuel M'Kisson, the father of Robert M'Kisson, her Mother's husband. There was a bright fire-light in the room at the

Mrs. M'Kisson, the woman that was killed, was most shockingly mangledher head was cut all to pieces. The Coroner's jury return that there were the caused her death. One gash on the right side of her head four inches long and one inch deep, cutting through the skull bone and into the brains; and one other wound four inches long & two inches deep, thro' the left shoulder into the cavity of the lungs, and the jury find that the blows were inflicted with an ane, by Samuel M'Kisson, and David M'Kisson.

This is certainly one of the most heartrending, cold blooded murders of which we ever heard. Samuel M'Kisson was the father of Robert and David, and about 70 years old! He was very much addicted to drink and improvident, and the only cause for committing the awful act, was that his son and his wife would not support him in his course of drunkenness which he attributed to the influence of Mrs. M'Kisson. David M'Kisson had been heard repeatedly to threaten her life and was seen in that vicinity that evening.

MURDERER CAUGHT .- David M'Kisson, implicated in the Northfield murder, was taken at Turtle Island on Saturday last. He is now undergoing an examin. ation.

The Treasurer would again respectfully suggest to those who have the means, whether it would not be a mutual accommodation to themselves and Treasurer, should they embrace an earlier opportunity to pay their taxes, and prevent the confusion consequent upon crowding so great an amount of business into a few of the last days of receiving taxes. Persons will please to come furnished with CHANGE as it will be impossible for the Treasurer to be provided, at all times, if the present scarcity continues.

F. WILLIAMS PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING AT RAVENNA,

PORTAGE COUNTY, OHIO, A Semi-Monthly Agricultural Paper

TO BE ENTITLED The Western Agriculturist. AND FARMER'S

AND MECHANIC'S REGISTER. IIIE Subscriber, believing that the Farm-ing interest of the Western Reserve is sufficiently great to sustain an Agricultural Paper, proposes publishing, at Ravenns, Portage county, a paper dovoted exclusively to that

The fact is now clearly demonstrated, that Agricultural Papers are of great advantage to the Farming Interests of a country. In New-England and in New York, where the art of Agriculture is carried nearer to perfection than in any of the other States of the Uninn, there are several papers devoted to that subject which have a wide circulation.

Though the population of the Reserve consists chiefly of Farmers, yet there is not a pa-per designed entirely for their interests, while there are no less than twenty-eight political and religious papers. The AGRICULTURIST will be strictly neutral in politics and religion—it will contain a corinformation most useful to the interest of farmers.

The great improvements which are now occupying the attention of the Farming Publicthe many new inventions in the implements of husbandry which are continually appearing, render it highly necessary that all who are cal-culating to carry the business to a great extent should be possessed of the earliest information on the subject. Now, when the culture of Silk, and the growth of the Beet for the manufacture of Sugar is becoming the engrossing topic of the age, it is important that the Farmers of the Reserve should be made acquainted with all the information to be had on the subject, and we shall give our attention on the procuring aud disseminating knowledge to these interesting objects.

The first number will be issued some time in April, if a sufficient number of aubscribers shall be obtained to warrant it. EDWIN R. SELDY.

Ravenna, Feb. 1, 1837. TERMS.

PROSPECTUS FOR

The Ohio Statesman. intend after the first of July next, to pub-lish in this city, a paper with the above title to supersede the Western Bemisrger. It will appear in a new dress and on a mam-

The success of a well conducted State paper at the seat of Government, even in the least of the twenty-six confederacies of thi Union, is of too much consequence to be overlooked by any one who takes an interest in public affairs or the domestic policy of the country. Of how much greater importance then must it be to the citizens of so flourishing and powerful a S.ate as Ohio-whose position, territory, population, industry and perishable resources are scarcely equalled by any State of the Union, and certainly never can be rivalled by any of the magic sisterhood that spring into existence, along the almost endless streams that pour their annual floods into the majestic Mississippi. It is a sort of central, or "neutral ground," where the inhabitants of all other States meet, in their periodical migrations, mingling their opinions. Her government, her politics, her agriculture, commerce, and improvements in the facility of transportation and travel, will all therefor be of deep interest to the nation, and of great magnitude to herself. And a paper blending in its columns these various, though connected interests, cannot fail to meet the very general approbation of an enlightened public.

Satisfied that no people can be prosperous and happy without they are free-free in thought, free in every good work, free from the shackels of vicious and mistaken legislation, the Ohio Statesman will espouse the doctrines of the good old Democratic school. The supremacy of the people, the rights of the States, and a light and simple government-in contradistinction to a ponderous and complex one. These will be the cardina al principles that shall direct me in my editorial labors, and upon which I shall dilate as time and circumstances require. Those who are governed by honest motives and correct doctrines cannot stray far from the line of justice, nor commit political errors of any great magnitude, and such I sincerely hope may be the enviable lot of the "Onto STATESMAN." Men may change, but principles are us enduring as the knowledge of "good and evil." The advocates of legalized monopolies will always be distinguished from the friends of equal laws and individual independence, until reason shall have lost her emp re and the native dignity of our race extinguished.

Having scanned closely the private and po-litical history of Mr Van Buren, I early be-came warm and active in his nomination and election to the exalted station he now fills, and from the evidences yet before us of his fitness for the office to which the partialities of his countrymen have premoted him, I am more than gratified at the triumph of correct principles in his elevation, and feel it a duty of conscience to g ve my utmost support to sustain his administration. The more the character of Mr. Van Buren is studied, and his acts examined into, the wider will public confidance be extended, and the more certain his success over opponents, who, while they envy and revile, yet admire and feel the force of hir talents, and the power of his un"

Democrats of Ohio! it is unnecessary for me to say more. To a very large portion of you I claim a personal as well as political acquaintance. But to be useful and make my paper respectable and independent, I mus your undivided support - a support which I know you are able, and I doubt not are most willing to give. Our interests are one, and inseperable, and my highest wish is to deserve that confidence which may be placed in me, in this undertaking.

TERMS .- The "Onio STATESMAN" will be published weekly, (except during the sitting of the Legislature, when it will be issued twice a week.) at three dollars a year. Papers will always be sent at the request of responsible individuals without the money if it is desired -the subsciber holding himself to be drawn on at pleasure. The impossibility of collecting accounts at a distance, except at great expener, is the cause of this necessary arranges ment. Persons to whom this prospectus is sent.will please circulate it, or hand it to a friend. Sub scribers will have the Hemisphere sent them until the change is made, if they require it;
